WHITNEY'S BATTLEAXE WINS.

HAMBURG COLT TAKES GRAND UNION HOTEL STAKES.

Jim Newman and Loretta M. Also Successful Favorites-Wire In and Pat Bulger Score at Long Odds Start Enables Aviston to Score for Jack McGinnis.

DABATOGA. Aug. 9.—Harry Payne Whitholy's Battleaxe was victorious in the Grand Union Hotel Stakes, for two-year-olds, six furlongs, here to-day. He was coupled with Midas, the pair ruling the choice at 8 5, heavily hacked: Newton Boundards. 5. heavily hacked: Newton Bennington's Jerry Wernberg was next in favor at threes, with much support for Vendor, who carried F. R. Hitchcock's colors, and slass S. Beaning to the fifth race, for three-year-olds and up-ward, at a mile. Humo Mad. F. R. Hitchcock's colors, and also S. S. Brown's Accountant and the Waldeck Stable's Ben Hodden. Vendor and Accountant each car-ried 127 pounds and were unable to get inside of the money.

Midas, with Hildebrand up, went out in front at the send-off and set a rapid pace for Jerry Wernberg, with Vendor, Ben Hodden, Battleave and Accountant in a bunch behind. At the half mile pole Redfern let Battleaxe down partially, and he forged into the leadership. There was nothing to it after this incident for the Hamburg colt won cleverly by a half length in 1:14. H. M. Ziegler's Sandy D., played down to 15 to 1, came from away back in the stretch and ran over Jerry Wernberg, from whom he took the place by a length and a half, with Midas the same distance back. Midas will he hard to beat in future, as he was clearly short and in need of a couple of races.

A ragged start had much to do with the result of the first event, a five and a half fur-long dash for two-year-old fillies. Jack McGinnis's Aviston, 6 to 1, got off running and was never caught, winning in a gallop by four lengths. August Belmont's Bivouac, 4 to 1, closed resolutely and nailed the place, while Ruth W., the favorite, after a poor get-away, ran a fine race and took third money by a head from Margaret M., a good thing, who had been second nearly all the way, but was short. The time was 1:08.

T. Hitchcock, Jr.'s, good timber topper, Jim Newman, a 7 to 5 favorite, experienced Jim Newman, a 7 to 5 favorite, experienced no difficulty in capturing the handicap steeple-chase. Gentlemen riders had the mounts, and Mr. Harris rode the winner in clever fashion, bringing him home eight lengths in front of Presgrave, played down to 5 to 1, who was handled by F. Ambrose Clark. Punctual, with Mr. Devereux up, was a quarter of a mile away, with 7 to 1 about him. Punctual fell, but was remounted, while Graceaway and Daffo-down-dilly, the former backed down to 3 to 1, both took tumbles.

There was a big surprise in store for the crowd in the handicap at a mile and three-sixteenths. When Uncle Urigh, the favorite, quit a furlong from home after making the running up to this point, Bragg, a 15 to 1 shot, looked the winner, only to tire in the last few jumps in favor of the Kirkfield Stable's Wire In, a 20 to 1 shot, who took the race in a drive by three parts of a length in 2.01 1-5. Bragg was second, a neck in front of Oarsman, the top weight, at 4 to 1, who was badly ridden by Dugn. Tyron ran to form, and Red Friar, after showing early speed, stopped at the three-quarter pole.

M. Ticher or's Loretta M, a 16 to 5 favorite at the three-quarter pole.

M. Tichevor's Loretta M., a 16 to 5 favorite in a big field of three-year-olds, who ran in the fifth race at a mile, was lucky to win by a head after being the runner-up most of the head after being the runner-up most of the way. S. S. Brown's Ascot Belle, backed down to 5 to 1, would have been successful, however, if she had not been shut off soon after the start. As it was she ran a great race and nabbed the place from Our Sister, 12 to 1, who also ran splerdidly under the circumstances, by a neck. Colossal and Little Woods, the carly pacemakers, both quit. The mile was run in 141.

A killing with Graziallo, the top weight in the handicap for all ages, seven furiongs, failed by a narrow margin. Graziallo was backed from 10 to 1 down to fours, but after meeting with much hard luck was finally beaten in a drive by Pat Bulger, a 15 to 1 shot, who had an advantage of three parts of a length as he flashed past the judges. Councilman, running in the Tichenor silks, queted at 10 to 1, was a close third, beating Inferio a head. Foncasta and Goldsmith, who showed the way for five furiongs, stopped as if shot. The time was 1:27.

Three favorites got the money. The track was fast and the attendance good. The summaries:

PERRY BELMONT BUYS MARES. To Be Imported to His Kentucky Farm -Englishman Buying Trotters.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Aug. 9.—Information has been received here to the effect that Perry Belmont, who has been traveling in England, has purchased for importation to this country a number of thoroughbred broodmares, which he proposes to send to his Horse Haven Farm in this country, where they will be bred to the famous racehorse, Ethelbert. Mr. Belmont alread has in the stud here about fifteen mares. It is understood that he expects to increase the capacity of his stud to about fifty mares.

George Parsons, representing Clarence H. Mackay, is in Kentucky for the purpose of buying a number of thoroughbred horses to be used as jumpers. To-day he visited the Montrose farm of Major P. P. Johnston, president of the National Trotting Association, who is a breeder of all classes of fine horses. Mr. Parsons intends to purchase for an English customer while here twenty head of trotting bred mares and a stallion for exportation. The customer, whose name he withheld, is expected here next week to approve of the purchases. It is believed by some turfmen that this will be one of the largest consignments of trotting stock sent to one man in England in some years.

Driving King Direct in the 2:04 pace, the feature of the day, the veteran was swallowed up in a cloud of dust and a tangle of sulkies and horses. of the stretch, when he put his hoof through the wheel of Locanda's sulky. Down went Direct, and over went the Locanda sulky. Then crash into the mix-up went the horses behind.

When the dust had cleared away and a sulky or two had been pulled out of the mess, Geers was seen lying prostrate. King Direct, dragging the shattered sulky, ran away. The other horses were caught. Geers had out of him, but the first thing he said upon opening his eyes was:
"Now, don't make a hurrah out of this and scare everybody to death."

And just to show he was all right, Geers drove Turley in the 2:11 trot which followed and won the deciding heat. The crowd gave and won the deciding heat. The crowd gave him an ovation.

Fast time and a fast track ruled, and the pool sellers were kept busy hedging. Snyder McGregor, 100 to 50 on the field, got two of the three heats from Norman B. in the 2:08 trot. The judges found both drivers blameless for the accident and placed both horses in the final heat. The Allerton stallion got the race. There is a lot of interest in the free for all trot to-morrow, as the sensation field of the year is engaged.

SARATOGA, N. Y., Aug. 9.—The final match for the Grand Union Hotel cups in the annual tournament of the Saratoga Polo Club was played this afternoon. The first team of the Albany club, allowed a handicap of 8 goals, vanquished by a score of 18 to 8 the thirt team of the Exopia Hunt Club of Hamilton, SOCIETY'S DAY AT THE TRACK

GENTLEMEN RIDERS COMPETE OVER A STIFF COURSE.

Hustling for Riders for the Futurity -Jockey Wille Davis in a Serious Condition, Due to Overreducing-Oyama Goes Six Furiongs in Fast Time

SARATOGA, Aug. 9. Society held sway at the track to-day, for the feature of the afternoon's program was a handicap steeplechase, with the conditions calling for gentleman riders. The regulars, too, found interest in the event, for the reason that the course here is about as stiff as any in the country, and all hands were anxious to see the non-professionals try their skill at a task that really bothers those who make riding through the field a business. Five starters came to the post, the only absentee being F. Ambrose Clark's Steelmaker, and he was not missed. His stablemate, Presgrave, was known to be the better of the two by many pounds, and it was he that Mr. Clark elected to ride. The other starters were Thomas Hitchcock's Jim Newman, ridden by Mr. Harris; Harry S. Page's Graceaway, piloted by his owner; J. E. Widener's Daffo-Down-Dilly, who was entrusted to the care of Mr. Baker, and Punctual, the hope of the Virginians, who was ridden by Mr. Devereux. The result was a rather clever victory for the Hitchcock representative, but he was compelled to earn his laurels. The others, or, to be exact, some of them, made it lively for him the better part of the journey. He ran with a double bridle and some more rigging that looked a little strange to the novices in this line of sport. He was trying to run all the way, an old trick of his, and all credit must be given to the gentleman who Presgrave finished second after making most of the pace. The latter's owner went in the stand after the finish, and it was some little time before the red board was run up, causing many to believe that a claim of foul had been lodged. The trouble was that at the starting point two blue flags had been set to mark the point of the timing flag, and these were not taken down after the field had passed them. As the race progressed, some went to the left of these flags and others to the right, and the result was confusion among the riders, in fact Mr. Clark went into the stand for the purpose of making sure that Jim Newman had gone the course.

stand for the purpose of making sure that Jim Newman had gone the course.

When the matter was explained to him he was satisfied. Still, there is no doubt that these flags might make a lot of difference in a race, and in future they will not be used. The timer's flag will be dropped at an imaginary line. This will end all chances of error on the part of the riders.

The defeat of Punctual was put on Daffo-Down-Dilly, who threw his rider at the second jump and ran with the others until he carried Punctual out at one of the jumps on the backstretch. All considered, the race filled its part of the day's entertainment and it will go a long way toward attracting attention to this branch of racing.

The hustle for riders for the Futurity is now well under way, and it looks as if almost any fair sort of a rider-can get a mount, and at a fancy fee. To-day it was announced that Heigerson would be on Belisnicker in the big event at Sheepshead Bay. This would seem to mean that O'Neill, who rides for the stable, will be on one of August Belmont's horses; in fact, this is the next thing to certain, for Newton Bennington, who holds the contract on the last named rider, announced that he was in the field for the best boy that was still on the watting list.

Mr. Bennington's starter in the race will be Jerry Wernberg. This colt was heavily played to-day to win the Grand Union Hotel Stakes, and on his work the very best of judges agreed he was extremely dangerous. He did run a good race, but it was not of the sort that would seem to make a Futurity possibility. His owner, however, still declares he is far better than he shows in his races and hopes to see him at some future time make good the speed he shows in his races and hopes to see him at some future time make good the speed he shows in his work.

Willie Davis, the jockey, is in the Saratoga Hospital to-night in a serious condition, the result of overreducing. He was out on the road the best part of the morning, working hard, and when he came to the track he went to the jockeys' room to dress for his aftermoon's work. In a short time he complained of feeling ill and a few minutes later fell in a faint. All efforts to revive him were fruitless, and for a time it looked as if he would not relly, but the doctors by hard work brought him around. Their verdict to-night is that with care and rest he will pull through. Many of the riders find it hard here to keep down to weight. The high life which is epidemic everywhere brings them into the swim, and late hours and big dinners cause them to put on weight at a rate that is very trying. All orders from employers as to habits are ignored, and will be until there is a shift of scene to Sheepshead Bay, where regulations can be enforced.

Oyama, who will be one of the several that Jimmie Rowe will send to the post for the Futurity in the colors of James R. Keene, was galloped between races this afternoon. He had a big boy on his back and was not asked to hurry at any stage of the journey, but covered the six furlongs in 1:15. This work delighted the critics, and for the remainder of the time that intervenes before the running of the big race the doings of this son of Commando will be given the keenest attention.

work delighted the critics, and for the remainder of the time that intervenes before the running of the big race the doings of this son of Commando will be given the keenest attention.

Charles Rowe has purchased a contract on the services of Jockey Sewall, a boy that rated as one of the best riding around St. Louis this summer. The youngster has been brought up in a rough school, but it will not take him long to get steady after some experience in these parts.

Johnny Lamle, the old time rider, has at last decided to undergo an operation for the stomach trouble from which he has been a sufferer for years. His condition is pitiful, as he has wasted away until he now tips the scales at 85 pounds. Present plans are for him to go, home to Coney Island for a rest of a couple of weeks, then to go, to some hospital, where the speration will be performed.

Jack McGinnis has purchased Athlone, the borse that caused all the talk here on Monday, for $3,000. It may be that he has secured a bargain, but the chances are that he paid full value and a little more. Kansas Price continues to add to his string. To-day he claimed Ascot Belle from Capt. S. S. Brown after the filly had been beaten in the fifth race.

The cost was $1,20, a figure about one-third her market value. Her former owner, while sorry to lose her, as he desired to breed her after her racing days were over, takes the sensible view that selling races are on the card for this purpose, and he, like all the others that run in them, must take his medicine when it comes.

The stewards of the meeting have at last decided to alter their rulling which prohibited absolutely the schooling of horses over the regular steeplechase course. The horsemen complained that it was very trying to bring out a horse to a new course and expect him to take to it with the safety that he would show over ground with which he was familiar. The alteration is that all will be permitted to school over the regular course on Friday morning between the hours of 9 and 10.

The defeat of Ruth W.

and later added to his profits by a big commission on Loretta M.

The principal winners on Battleaxe in the Grand Union Hotel Stakes were George Wheelock, who bet $5,000; Jakie Fields, whose wager was $2,500; Johnny Fay, the Western bookmaker, who invested $2,000, and Sol Lichtenstein, who was content with a wager of a thousand. The bulk of these winnings went back to the layers through the defeat of Uncle Urigh in the handleap, for this was rated by the smart players as one of the best plays of the day. The Westerners, backed up by the Providence division, all but cleaned up with Bracz. As it was, they won handsomely. They obtained as good as 5 to 1 for the place and 2 to 1 third. It is now believed that Clarence Mackay has abandoned his plan to race of an extensive scale next year. He has announced that he will sell at auction this fall twenty yearlings from his Silver Brook Stud at Red Bant, N.

CARRETTE AGAIN CHAMPION. West Side Cop Runs Away With Two Mile

Event in Games. The athletic meeting of the Patrolmen's Benevolent Association at Sulzer's Harlem River Park, was finished yesterday. The rain made the gravelly track a slippery piece of working ground, but the cops did not mind that. They tiptoed with great speed about track encloses.

The event of the day was the race for the two mile championship of the depart-ment. Ed Carrette, who on Tuesday won the mile championship for the second successive year, repeated his friumph of 1904 in the two mile event as well. He had little trouble in winning and ran in something over 1 minutes to do it. Only one other of the terrors to malefactors finished the long run, a fact which may be interesting to light footed and long winded thieves.

John Burke, whose world's record performance with the 56 pound weight on Tuesday caused such excitement, captured first prize in another contest, hurling the ball for height this time. He did not approach a world's record, but that was not unexpected. It is a great deal to ask of any athlete to make world's records every day.

Jerry Murphy and Mike Cregan scored heavily in the handicap track events. Jim Bresnan of the Thirty-first precinct again won the sack race, this time at a distance of In the potato race Timothy J. Gannon flinshed first, but a protest was filed against him because it was said he was a professional GATHERING FOR N. Y. Y. C. CRUISE. Yachts Heading for Glen Cove-Will Race To-day for Rendezvous Cup.

A hundred or more yachts will gather at Glen Cove to-day in obedience to the orders of Commodore Frederick G. Bourne of the New York Yacht Club. The fleet of the club is to rendezvous preparatory to starting on its annual cruise to the eastward. With Yacht Club have cruised each year since the club was organized in 1844. The exceptions were during the civil war and the year of the time to-day. Others that have been overhauled and cleaned in the shipyards around here were lowered into the water vesterday in as fine condition as it has been possible to get them and were towed toward the rendezvous. Several of the boats last night were in Larchmont harbor, at City Island, at Oyster Bay, or some other nearby port and will proceed to Glen Cove this morning and be there in time for the start of the scheduled for 11 o'clock. These races are preliminary affairs and arranged chiefly to entertain the yachtsmen while the fleet is gathering in the harbor. The races are for all classes, and the chief

Interest will be centered in the first meeting of F. F. Brewster's Elmina and Royal A. Rainey's Invader. These are two new boats will have to meet Arthur F. Luke's Corona, which is said to be in the best of condition. Another race of interest will be condition. Another race of interest will be that between W. Gould Brokaw's Sybarita and Stephen Peabody's Vigilant. These are both yawis and have never come together in a race. The Sybarita was built from designs by the late George L. Watson and the Vigilant is the old Cup defender built by Herreshoff. In the 70 foot class of sloops J. Rogers Maxwell's Yankee and William Ross Proctor's Mineola will meet, and it is probable that as the Weetamoe, owned by H. F. Lippitt, has no competitor in her class she will go up and race against the 70 footers. There will also be a large fleet of starters in the 33 foot class and in the class for the one design 30 footers. Several courses have been arranged off Glen Cove, and those selected will be signaled shortly before the preparatory signal is made.

GRANT BEATEN AT LONGWOOD. New York Tennis Crack Subdued by Cabot -Other Results.

BOSTON, Aug. 9.-Rain interfered with the Longwood lawn tennis tournament this afternoon. Some play was witnessed this morning, a surprise being the defeat of W. C. Grant, the New York crack, by Norman W. Cabot of the Longwood club. Later Cabot was put out of the running by F. B. Alex ander.

In the Eastern doubles the most important happening was the withdra wal of the Clothier-Larned team and its default to Little and LeRoy. This withdrawal was rendered necessary by reason of Clothier's injured Wrenn and Fincke won handily from Jones and Gross. Summary: Longwood Singles—Third round—T. Motley, Jr., deteated W. F. CUBS CLAW OUR CHAMPIONS,

WHO EMERGE SECOND BEST FROM CHICAGO TUSSLE.

The Blow Noftened by Defeat of Pittsburgs -Another Row in the Smoky City -Brooklyns Arise in Their Majesty and Smite St. Louis Team Pull Sore.

The playful Chicago Cubs clawed our National League champions again yesterday, on the occasion of the latter's hundredth battle, making five times out of eleven that Mac and his merry men have played second fiddle on this trip. However, yesterday's blow was softened by the defeat of the littaburgs by Boston. Incidentally, the cherubs of the sooty balliwick were involved in a large, bristling row on the field. The Brook-lyns arose in their majesty and smote the Cardinals full sore. The Quaker stubbed his toe in Cincinnati. The results:

Chicago, 7; New York, 2. Brooklyn, 5; St. Louis, 4. Boston, S; Pittsburg, 3. Cincinnati, 8; Philadelphia, 3.

CHICAGO (N. L.), 7: NEW YORK (N. L.), 2. CHICAGO, Aug. 9.—New York was distanced to-day in a long and hard played game. McGraw's pet trick—sending up a batter for his pitcher at a close point—proved a deathblow to his team. Bowerman, who substituted for Ames in the seventh, forced a runner at the plate, while McGinnity, who went to the slab, was massacred by Chicago. Three runs were made off Ames, and each was the result of a base on balls. Slagle was passed at the start and was hit around in a hurry. In the second Hofman walked and scored on a sacrifice and Kling's single. Hofman walked again in the fourth, stole second and counted on a drive by Wicker.

Gilbert singled in the second, stole the next base, skipped to third on a wide throw by O'Neill and home when Maloney's throw-in bounced over the catcher. In the seventh, after a long period of helplessness, New York got busy. Dahlen singled and Devlin and Gilbert beat out grounders. Dahlen scored on Bresnanan's fly to center, but there the New Yorks fell down and did nothing more. McGinnity went in and was saluted with a rattle of bats. Wicker singled, Slagle walked, Maloney beat a bunt and Chance doubled. Three runs came in before the inning closed. A muff by Mertes and two outs added another in the eighth. The score:

PITTSBURG, Aug. 9.—A general kick at the decisions of Umpire Klem during the ninth inning of to-day's game resulted in eight Pittsburg players being removed from the playing field.

The betting had been 10 to 3 in favor of Pittsburg, but the home team never had a show and the soreigamblers who lost looked around for something to kick at. They caught sight of Umpire Klem, and then there was trouble. Umpire Klem was finally forced to secrete himself in a room in the grand stand. About 300 tough looking fellows hung round until forced out of the gates by the police. Klem half an hour later made his escape from the grounds by a side gate.

Klem endeared himself to the square sports by his fair and impartial umpiring, but angered the gamblers in the minth by sitting down on the eight Pittsburg players, whom he chased from the field, each with a $10 fine attached. Pittsburg had lost, having not the least show, when the players in reserve on the bench became loud and abusive. They were Robertaille, Lynch, Case, Phillippe, Smith, Peitz, Flaherty and Gibson, and after cautioning them once or twice Umpire Klem showed his backbone by ordering the entire outfit off the ground and threatening to send Clarke after them when he objected. The score:

day will probably stand as the season's record for a nine inning game.

There is safety in numbers. Jake Stahl used fourteen men against the Chicagos the other day and finally got there.

Perhaps the most freakish game of the season was that played by Pittsburg against St. Louis on May S. The Pirates made 16 hits and only 4 runs, and were beaten, 5 to 4, St. Louis making 9 hits.

The Bostons are a thorn in the flesh for the Pittsburgs. They won their seventh game from the Pirates yesterday, which is as many as the New Yorks and the Chicagos have won from the exchampions.

Evidence of the sharp tussic for the lead in the American League is the fact that no less than six of the cight teams have at some time or other this season been in first place. They are New York, Philadelphia, Detroit, Chicago, Washington and Cleveland. Moreover, the New Yorks have been in the lead twice, the Philadelphias twice, the Detroits once, the Washingtons twice, the Chicagos on six different occasions and the Clevelands on seven.

The Quakers did not show an amount of brainwork that would cause a college faculty to begome jealous. The most glittering bit of forgetfulness was when Abbott, in the midst of the batting raily in the sixth, became so rattled that he forgot to put on his mask when he went behind the bat. He had thrown it off to chase a foul, and it never occurred to him that he would need it any more, for the Reds were hitting all the balls that came over the plate out into the gardens. Abbott would have been catching fouls with his face yet but for Kid Gleason,—Cincinnati Enquirer.

All indications point to a close struggle when the teams of the New York Police Department and the New York Letter Carriers Association come together at the Polo Grounds on next Saturday. The police team has been practising twice a week at Fort Hamilton and has played several games with the army team, winning each time. The letter carriers have met and dereated most of the post office teams in New York and vicinity. Officials of both the Fost Office and Police departments will be on hand, also many of the heads of the city departments. The proceeds will be divided between the police relief fund and letter carriers sick and death benefit fund.

Curtiss of Hammondsport, N. Y., won the twenty-five mile handicap road race for motorcycles at Waltham this morning average of a trifle faster than 1 minute 23 seconds a mile. When it is considered that the course was only five miles long and had many turns, one can realize the great speed maintained by Curtiss on the straights to make up for time lost on turns. At times it was better than a mile a minute. Not only did Curtiss win first place prize, but he took the time prize as well. He outclassed he
